Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

KELCIE ANDERSON, LITURGIST

Based on the writings of Martin Luther King Jr.

I refuse to believe that we are unable to influence the events which surround us.

I refuse to believe that we are so bound to racism and war, that peace, brotherhood and sisterhood are not possible.

I believe there is an urgent need for people to overcome oppression and violence, without resorting to violence and oppression.

I believe that we need to discover a way to live together in peace, a way which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation. The foundation of this way is love.

I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word...

I believe that peoples everywhere can have three meals a day for their bodies, education and culture for their minds, and dignity, equality and freedom for their spirits.

I believe that what self-centered people have torn down, other-centered people can build up.

By the goodness of God at work within people, I believe that brokenness can be healed. "And the lion and the lamb shall lie down together, and everyone will sit under their own vine and fig tree, and none shall be afraid."

Invitation to Prayer

In honor of the life and witness of
Martin Luther King, Jr. let us pray together...

Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

Lord our God, see how oppression and violence are our sad inheritance, one generation to the next. We look for you where the lowly are raised up, where the mighty are brought down.

We find you there in your servants, and we give you thanks this day for your preacher and witness, Martin Luther King, Jr.

We ask that we have the courage and determination to follow his example in battling injustice and living the Gospel of love.

Fill us with your spirit: where our human community is divided by racism, torn by repression, saddened by fear and ignorance, may we give ourselves to your work of healing. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Moment of Silent Prayer and Reflection

With God's Grace We Can Begin Anew

Believe the good news this day:
in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Song of Thanksgiving #623

Don't Keep it to Yourself

One of the teachings of Dr. King is that peace is a gift, but also something one must work to attain. The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

And also with you!

Please share the peace of Christ with one another.
