Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

MARK PHIFER, LITURGIST

We thank you, God, for coming to us as a neighbor, a stranger, an immigrant, binding our wounds and carrying us to safety, so that we might love you with all our heart, soul, and mind, and loving our neighbor as ourselves.

Invitation to Prayer

Together, let us pray...

*Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

God of all compassion, you call us to show your kindness to neighbors and strangers alike, even as you have shown us your tender mercy in Jesus Christ, who rescued us from darkness.

Yet we pass by the needy you call us to serve, leaving your ministry of mercy to others. Have compassion on us, O Lord. Stir up in us your Spirit of mercy, that we may gladly aid those in distress, even as you have been merciful to us. Make us beacons of your hope, comfort and justice, that the poor and needy may know the good news of your reign. Amen.

*Moment of Silent Prayer and Reflection

With God's Grace We Can Begin Anew

God calls us to meet the real needs of real people. One of the great needs imperfect people share is that of forgiveness. Friends, believe the good news: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Don't Keep it to Yourself

Through forgiveness we are granted peace with God and peace with each other. Please share the peace of Christ with all ages. Peace be with you.

And with you also.
