Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

JAMES LOUIE, LITURGIST

Jesus calls us to follow as his disciples.

Following Jesus Christ requires more than a token effort.

True discipleship is costly, often requiring us to choose a more difficult way.

Invitation to Prayer

Together, let us pray...

*Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

Lord, you seek us out, encounter us where we are, enter into dialogue with us, and invite us to be your followers. But we are disconcerted by your call, for the requirements of discipleship are overwhelming.

How can we be expected to choose conflict over peace, the unknown over the familiar, the hazardous over the safe? Can we dare let go of what we presently value most? We admit we like life orderly and settled, and we have our dreams and schemes to pursue.

Furthermore, our families and friends need our attention, and we have worthy projects to do. Forgive our holding back, and the self-protective reasons we give. Lord, you have called us to follow. Now, we pray, give us what we need to follow. Amen.

Moment of Silent Prayer and Reflection

With God's Grace We Can Begin Anew

God calls us to meet the real needs of real people. One of the great needs imperfect people share is that of forgiveness. Friends, believe the good news: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Don't Keep it to Yourself

Through forgiveness we are granted peace with God and peace with each other. Please share the peace of Christ with all ages. Peace be with you.

And with you also.
